

I urge you not to overturn the "do not call" program. Telemarketers are annoying, and I do not want them calling my home. They're rude, don't always acknowledge you when you answer the phone, and they call at the worst possible times, i.e. early on weekends or during dinner. If my number is private (which it is), they should not be allowed to call me!